

Data Documentation within a VRE for the Social Sciences

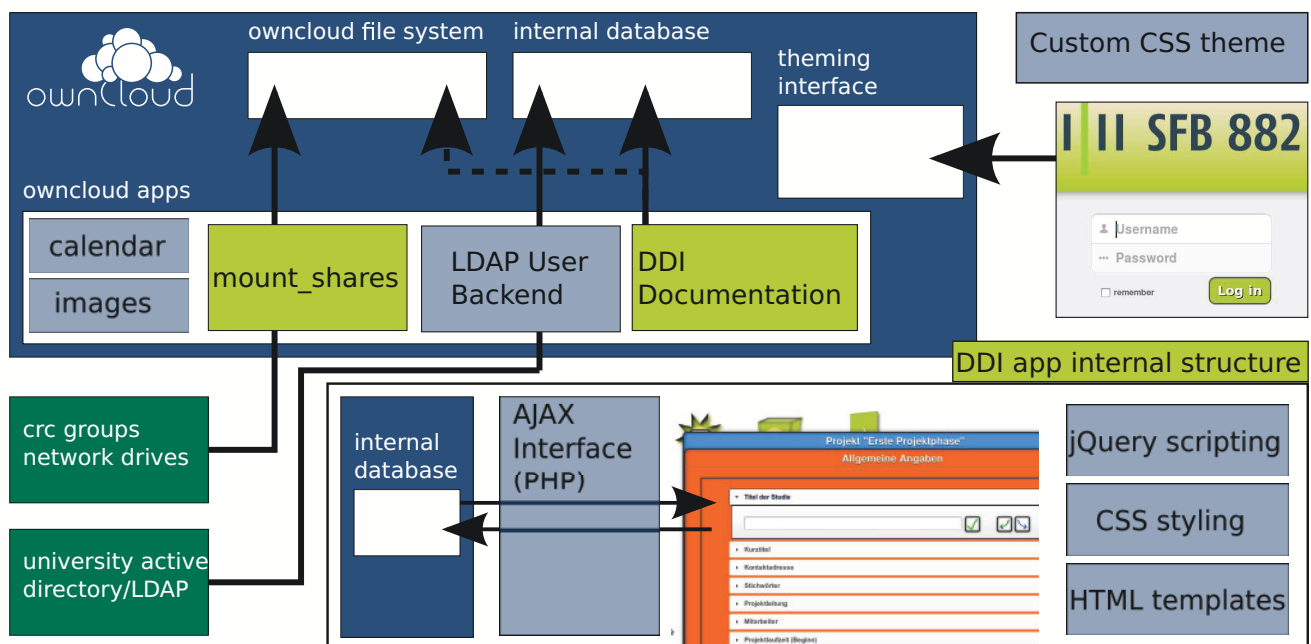

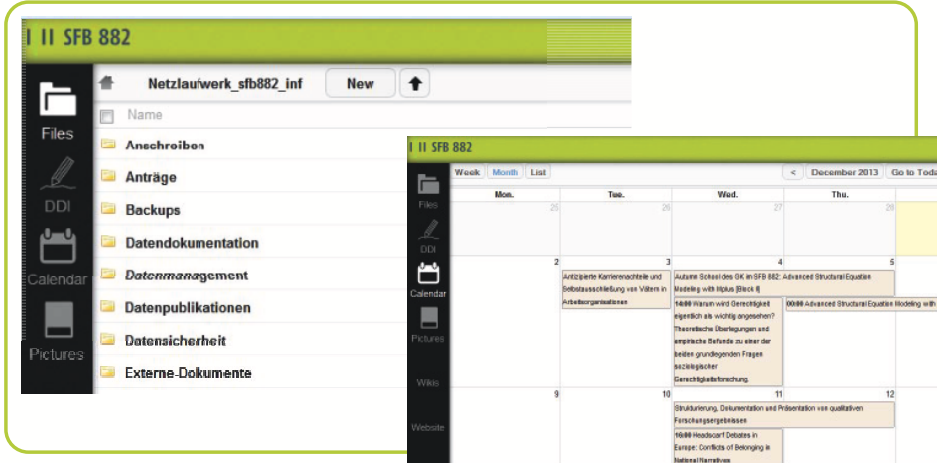

Christoph Broschinski and Johanna Vompras

{broschinski, vompras}@uni-bielefeld.de

The Collaborative Research Center (SFB) 882 "From Heterogeneities to Social Inequalities" at the University Bielefeld represents a framework for 17 sub-projects on social inequalities. With the promotion of a Virtual Research Environment (VRE) by the INF project (integral part of the SFB) advisory and developmental services in the domain of information infrastructure are provided.

The VRE combines both a work and a project-specific research platform. The work platform bundles various tools in a single environment:

- ★ Time/Location-independent Collaboration
- ★ File Access (shared folders)
- ★ Calendar/Synchronisation
- ★ Project Documentation
